COBRA LEGAL SOLUTIONS GROWS ITS TEAM WITH A POWERFUL NEW ADDITION
Cobra introduces its new Chief Operating Officer and Vice President of Legal, Renee Meisel

AUSTIN, TX– Cobra Legal Solutions, a leading global provider of technology and legal support services, is excited to announce that Renee Meisel will become the company's new Chief Operating Officer (COO) and Vice President of Legal effective December 11, 2017. In conjunction with Ms. Meisel's position at Cobra, the company will transform and align its organizational structure to support its evolving service offerings and growing technology division, as well as drive greater operational efficiency across the growing organization. The combination of Renee's industry knowledge and experience with Cobra's award-winning technologies and exceptional team will provide clients with industry-leading support in eDiscovery and other aspects of legal operations and outsourcing.

As COO and VP of Legal at Cobra, Ms. Meisel will office out of the Cobra Headquarters in Austin, Texas, bringing two decades of leadership and expertise to Cobra. Ms. Meisel will provide leadership and collaboration to support all aspects of Cobra's mission, directly supervising all of Cobra's US attorneys, operations and administration and providing strategic direction to the CobrATX team, Cobra's technology division.

"Renee's appointment as COO is a win for both the Cobra team and our clients. Her leadership and expertise in Cybersecurity and eDiscovery will create boundless value for our clients." Said Cobra's CEO, Candice Corby. "I am delighted to welcome Renee to the team."

Renee has built a career translating complicated, multi-stakeholder legal and operational issues into efficient, repeatable processes in large international legal departments. Renee spent eleven years at Dell working in a variety of capacities, including Legal Director of the eDiscovery team, legal counsel to the Global Security Organization, Legal Director – Cybersecurity, and Senior Director on the Legal Strategy and Operations team specializing in contracts management and spend and matter management. Most recently, Renee headed up Legal Operations for a global investment firm. She has worked in a wide variety of legal areas, including patent litigation, products liability, regulatory matters, internal investigations, information governance, eDiscovery, and cyber governance and incident response. Renee is a published author, cybersecurity expert and frequent speaker at numerous eDiscovery conferences.

Earlier in her career, Renee was a litigation associate at K&L Gates, formerly Hughes & Luce. She graduated from the University of Texas at Austin School of Law and achieved dual bachelor's degrees from the University of Oklahoma in French & English Literature. Renee resides in Austin, Texas with her family.

Cobra's Growth

As Cobra's growth continues to expand into new areas and with numerous new clients, so too must the company's team expand and grow. Cobra moved into its new headquarters close to the heart of downtown Austin at the beginning of November 2017 to accommodate company growth and success. These changes reflect Cobra's innovative company goals and focus on evolving its services to lead the industry in cyber security, IT infrastructure and management processes. Its enhanced Type 2 audited HIPAA-certified facility in Austin, TX now has even more security, storage and processing power. This year, Cobra's data capacity was expanded even further to include two additional data centers in Chicago, IL and Chennai, India.
